

The Retriever Believer

Monthly Newsletter of the Puget Sound Labrador Retriever Association
Volume 35, Number 4, April 2019

"Here comes the sun..."

I love the look and smell of spring!

On Saturday, March 23 PSLRA held a Fun Field Training Day. The organizers Terrie Sato, Jim and Cindy Olson, and Fran Seagren put together a day of play with a wing, meet a bird, a duck, and even a pet pigeon. From the barking, tails wagging, members smiles, laughter, and good natured teasing that went on, I would say Fun was had by all. Thank you to our PSLRA's field team that brought their equipment and knowledge to share.

PSLRA's next event is our Hunt Test, May 4 and 5 at Snoqualmie Retriever Grounds (previously Pepper's). Please check the website for more event information. Contact Cindy Olson, Event Secretary, or chairperson Liz Gibson to volunteer. We are always in need of volunteer help.

PSLRA's Board have always encouraged our members to bring us suggestions that could make our association better. In addition we are always available to answer questions. In response to requests for easy access to our association's monthly financials, a monthly report will be available on the website under the membership section. Further clarification, PSLRA's financials are reviewed by our CPA prior to annual IRS reporting. PSLRA is a 501(c)7, identified as a not-for-profit social club. PSLRA reports annually to the IRS and is registered as a not-for-profit organization with the State of Washington.

Our next Membership meeting will be on Saturday, May 18, Lynden Washington area. Exact location and time will be confirmed in early May and posted on our website.

Best wishes for a great start to Spring,

The Board requests all chairpersons to review this procedure.

PSLRA Board Meeting

- Christmas party, Dannakers
- Show N Go—Jill will confirm for next year
- Rescue—There are two females, MJ is fostering them and believes they will be easy to place as there is a huge waiting list for yellow females.
- Fall WC—Are hoping to have one but it is always an issue to get birds in the fall.
- Master National— Votes for the Master National has been made by the PSLRA. Diane Clark is our new Master National representative.

Old Business

- Annual Research donation needs to happen, we are open to ideas of research to support.
- Breeders List—the committee has had a great deal of dissent on what our standards should be. This is an important discussion that needs input from LRC, vets, and us. This is a very important issue that the board is addressing, looking for further input from our membership.
- Specialty trophies—We will continue to offer perpetual trophies. Although it is burdensome to store them, we need to come up with a new plan for storing, repairing and processing the trophies in order to continue to offer these special awards. There is currently a moratorium on new trophies.
- We will be ordering business cards/postcards to be handed out at shows, and will be ordering more decals as well.
- Still working on our mentorship program, would like a list of members who can mentor novices in a number of different events. Discussions on FB often attracts input from those who contradict our members so we would prefer it just be contact info rather than a public discussion.
- We would like each chairperson to write an instructional book for their event. Discussion continues on having the availability of printed membership forms at events.

New business

LRC asked for basket donation for the national. We approved $250 for a member to spend on a basket.

FB page guidelines—We will use it to publicize activities, volunteer guidelines, and events for non-members but not club business.

Not everyone uses the email lists, there has been a complaint that the newsletter is too difficult to access now that is isn't emailed. We are working on the system.

Next meeting April 17th at IHOP in Issaquah.

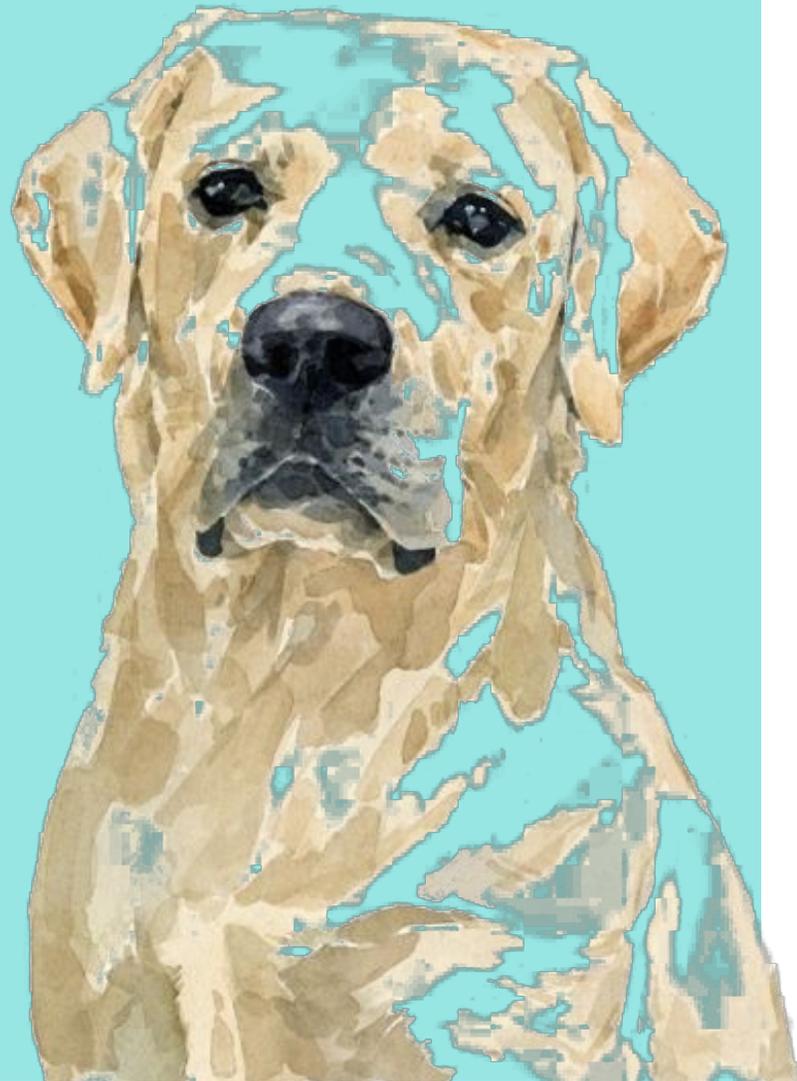

Meeting adjourned 8:40pm.

PSLRA FUN FIELD DAY

On March 23 PSLRA held its first field training day of the year. The weather was perfect. The dogs and owners came ready to work and play. The land was offered courtesy of Jerry Leitch on his property south of Monroe. Since it is true that a picture is worth a thousand words, it is best to let the pictures speak for themselves.

The workers: Not pictured are Jim Olson, safety and winger instructor, ran retired winger station; Jill Mahoney, bird thrower for the beginner station; Terrie Sato, beginner dog coach and co chair.

Cindy Olson co chair and marshal/
coach of the JR/SR stake

Fran Seagren winger operator and blind planter

Darlene Pado winger operator

THE DISCOVERY OF BIRDS: The beginner stake

Jen Hajny encouraging her boy to pick up a bird and bring it to her. Started on lead.

Kristen Reiter keeping an eye on Brach learning to hold and carry the bird.

Sharon and Breann Edwards and Jessica Baker brought a nice litter of pups to meet birds. They quickly went from sniffing a pigeon to carrying a wing. Brilliant pups!

Kristen and Marcus Ballou brought young Tessa out to learn about birds. Above: Marcus holds her while she marks the bird about to be thrown. Tessa was teething so the bird was replaced by a thrown wing. Left: the whole family watched as the wing was thrown. Tessa learned to cross a road and hunt up her bird. Good work!

Bea Ferguson was pleased with Ella's first experience marking and retrieving.

Blaze, owned by Brenda and Gary Hubbard, showed her blazing speed.

In fact, Blaze did not want to stop!

Wahoo!! It is safe to say Blaze had a great time.

The big dogs got their chance to play too. Bravo, left, waits patiently in the holding blind while Hobbs, right, retrieves a bird from the retired gun behind the hay bale.

Thank you to Jen Hajny and Gary Hubbard for throwing birds. Rhonda and Mike Forman for helping at the JR/ SR stake and Sidney Ocheltree for taking pictures.

Volunteer Opportunities:

2019 Spring Hunt Test May 4-5, 2019

PSLRA is hosting a double JH and double SH along with a MH test the weekend of May 4-5, 2019. Volunteering is an excellent way to see what hunt tests are all about while also supporting your club. If you are new to the field and hunt tests, there will be people to help you and provide instructions. Volunteers help the club manage its costs and keep events running smoothly.

Some of the various volunteer needs are typically:

1. Marshals
2. Stake Chairs
3. Volunteers to work with the stake chairs to help set up and take down equipment
4. Workers to operate the Pop and Throw stations
5. Gunners (contact the Gun Captain to see if you meet qualifications for this)
6. Hospitality (gathering and delivering lunches)
7. Test Dogs

Marshal: The marshal is responsible for keeping his/her assigned hunt test stake running promptly and smoothly, which includes, but is not limited to, the following tasks:

- The marshal is expected to maintain contact with headquarters, the head marshal (if one has been assigned), the hunt test chairman, and other stakes during the test – as needed. This is generally done via walkie-talkie.
- The marshal is responsible for the judges books and the marshal box. These can be picked up at headquarters (close to the main entrance of the grounds) in the morning. The judges books should be given to the judges prior to the test. Included in the marshal box are the catalogs, which should be distributed to hunt test participants.
- The marshal is responsible for checking people in (will be provided a list of dogs and handlers) and maintaining the running order. Marshals must make sure the holding blinds are full and may have to contact other stakes to find handlers who are running in multiple stakes.
- The marshal is responsible for reading out the list of callbacks, which they will receive from the judges. They are also responsible for providing the list of passing dogs (received from judges) to the Test Secretary at headquarters.
- Marshals are also responsible for making sure all of the workers and judges in their stake are provided food and drinks as needed (generally the hospitality volunteer will contact the marshal via radio and ask for a lunch count). There are usually coolers of drinks and snacks provided to each stake – the marshal makes sure all of the workers have a cooler.

Stake Chair: A hunt test stake chair is a volunteer who is responsible for keeping his/her assigned hunt test stake running promptly and smoothly, which includes, but is not limited to, the following tasks:

- The stake chair usually meets with the judges the day prior to the test for determining proper set up of equipment, and set up the test equipment according to the judges' instructions.
- The stake chair ensures that the bird technicians and gunners have adequate hearing protection, popper shells, ammunition, etc. These items will generally be in the stake chair box, which will be provided to the stake chair.
- Once the test is finished, the stake chair ensures all test equipment is broken down, gathered, and returned to headquarters.

Pop and Throw Stations: Volunteers working in the pop and throw stations will either operate the wingers or be placing birds in a particular spot for blind retrieves. These volunteers may also be shooting blanks from a popper gun. No live birds are used in pop and throw stations. A winger is a device used to launch bumpers or birds using slingshot, or catapult mechanisms. The pop results from the sound of a blank powder cartridge. Training and instructions will be provided.

Test Dog: A dog of similar ability as the test participants at a particular level (Junior, Senior or Master) who isn't entered in the test. The test dog is used to show where the marks will be and that the test is set up to the standard ability level .

Volunteers are generally needed for a particular stake (Junior, Senior, Master) and you will generally stay with that stake until the test for that stake is over. That said, Master is a two day test and if you can only work one day, let the test chair know. Partial days can be accommodated.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Spring Test, contact the hunt test chairs (or gun captain if you can shoot):
