Hello Members,

Hard to believe summer is winding down. Please be sure to thank this year's specialty and hunt test volunteers next time you see them. If you haven't signed up for the health clinic already, the registration form is both here and on the website, but only the one on the website is fillable so get that one if possible. Happy Autumn!

LABRA-BRAGS

Koa Labradors Kicked Off The Show Season in a Big Way!

In May, Koa Labradors had a great weekend at the NW Cluster in Lynden.

Felony

“Felony” was RWB after winning a lovely bred by class on Friday and earned her first Fast Cat qualifying run on Monday. And she won her Bred by class on Monday as well.

“Party” tried Fast Cat and while she got a qualifying run... she’s really not a fan, lol.

Party

Madison & Chantel

Madison was Best in Veteran Sweeps, Best of Opposite, Best Owner Handled in Breed and went on to an NOHS Group 4, from the Veteran Class. And she teamed up with her new best friend Savannah to compete in Open Senior in Juniors all weekend. Even at 8, she has no desire to slow down.

MORE LABRA-BRAGS FROM KOA... DRUMROLL PLEASE!

Our big winner was "Diesel". He was Winners Dog, Best of Winners and Best Owner Handled in Breed Monday. He then Won the NOHS Sporting Group.... And THEN was awarded Best in Show NOHS!! Knock me over with a feather...

So proud of him and the entire gang for giving me their all every time we step in to the ring.

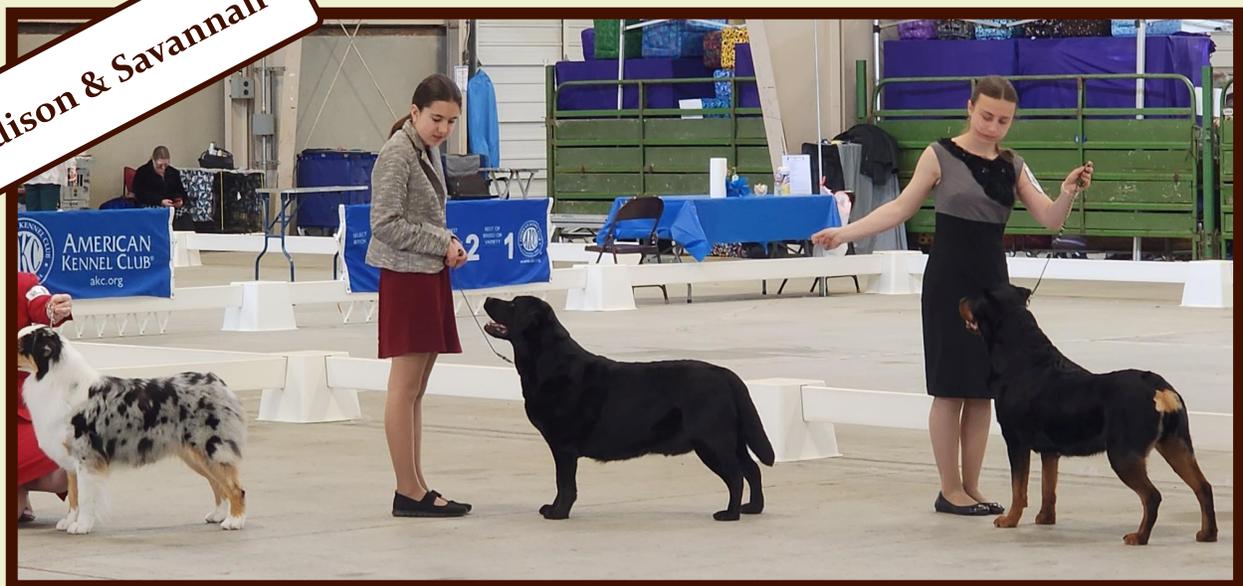

Diesel & Chantel

Even Grama Laeahi came out to play and earned a ribbon in sweeps. Boy was she mad when I left her at home on Sunday... She's 13 and also still wants to do all of the things.
